Onboarding

University of Lodz
Dormitory XI – EDEN

UNIWERSYTET
ŁÓDZKI

Dormitory Manager and Reception Desk

The manager of University of Lodz Dormitory XI is Elżbieta Kowalczyk.

Contact details:
Email: elzbieta.kowalczyk@uni.lodz.pl
Phone: +48 (42) 66 55 440

Reception Desk – Contact Details
Email: recepcja11ds@uni.lodz.pl
Phone: +48 530 078 820

THE RECEPTION DESK OPERATES 24/7!

UNIWERSYTET ŁÓDZKI

Councils of Residents and the University Campus Council

The responsibilities of a Council of Residents include representing the interests of all residents of a given dormitory, particularly by initiating and reviewing draft decisions by the University authorities on matters concerning the dormitory and student welfare.
Dormitory XI Council of Residents – e-mail contact: julia.patok@edu.uni.lodz.pl

The Campus Council of the University of Lodz
The Campus Council of the University of Lodz (ROA) represents the interests of residents living in the University of Lodz Student Dormitories. The Council comprises representatives of all the Councils of Residents.
Would you like to find out more about the role of University Campus Council? Visit the links below:
Website
Instagram

E-mail contact: roa@uni.lodz.pl
Detailed information on the Council's powers and responsibilities can be found in the Regulations of the UL Student Union's Collegiate Council.

UNIWERSYTET ŁÓDZKI

Laundry Rooms and Drying Facilities

Three washing machines are available.

Washing machines are available 24 hours a day. Each wash cycle costs PLN 8.

The laundry room and drying facilities are located in the basement of the dormitory. Keys to drying boxes may be obtained at the reception desk.

Laundry rooms must be booked using the online Forms booking system. Please check the availability of drying rooms with the reception staff.

Residents may use a drying facility for a maximum of 24 hours at a time.

Please remember that corridors also serve as emergency escape routes. DO NOT leave clothes airers with laundry in the corridors! Any items left there may be removed by dormitory staff.

UNIWERSYTET ŁÓDZKI

Kitchen and Rubbish Chutes

Shared kitchenettes are available on every floor.

To prevent cookware from burning and, in extreme cases, the fire alarm from being triggered or the fire brigade from having to attend, please do not leave food unattended while cooking.

As the kitchenettes are shared spaces, please help keep them clean and tidy, especially after preparing meals. Everyone deserves a comfortable environment in which to cook.

Please report any faults with the hobs or sinks to the reception staff immediately.

The bins in the kitchenettes are intended for BIO waste only. Please do not dispose of any other types of waste in them.

Waste chutes are located at the end of each corridor. As they are relatively narrow and can easily become blocked, please do not dispose of large items, such as pizza boxes, through the chutes.

UNIWERSYTET ŁÓDZKI

Guest Policy

Each resident may host up to two non-resident guests at a time, provided they have obtained the consent of their roommate(s). Guests may stay in the dormitory between 6.00 a.m. and 11.30 p.m. Before entering the dormitory, each guest must sign the guest register, providing their full name and the room number of the resident they are visiting. Guests must also sign out before leaving the dormitory.

Failure to comply with this requirement or exceeding the permitted visiting hours (i.e. staying in the dormitory after 11.30 p.m.) will result in an additional fee of PLN 10.80 per guest.

A second violation of the visiting hours may result in a one-month ban on receiving guests. A third violation within the same academic year will result in a ban on receiving guests until the end of that academic year.

Overnight Guests

If you wish to host a guest overnight, you must: complete the relevant form at the reception desk, obtain your roommate's consent, pay an overnight stay fee of PLN 10.80 per guest. Payment can be made in cash or by card at the reception desk.

Each resident is entitled to host overnight guests up to three times per month.

UNIWERSYTET ŁÓDZKI

Organising Events

If you wish to organise a larger event in the dormitory (for example, a birthday party), approval from both the dormitory manager and the Residents' Council is required

A written request containing: names and surnames of organisers, room numbers,organisers' signatures, a declaration accepting responsibility for any damage caused by guests, together with a guest list, must be submitted to the dormitory manager no later than one day before the planned event.

Quiet hours are in effect from 11.30 p.m. to 6.00 a.m. Any request for an exemption from quiet hours must be included in the written application.

The dormitory manager may refuse permission to organise an event without providing a reason.

UNIWERSYTET ŁÓDZKI

Dormitory Payments

Each resident must pay their dormitory fees into their individual bank account by the 26th day of each month.

Your individual bank account number can be found in USOS: For Everyone → FK Payments

Late payments automatically incur statuatory interest.

Failure to pay dormitory fees for two consecutive full months will result in mandatory eviction and the loss of accommodation rights.

Residents who pay their fees several months in advance may be eligible for a discount.
For further information, please contact the reception desk.

UNIWERSYTET ŁÓDZKI

Responsibility for Dormitory Property

Upon checking in, each resident accepts responsibility for the University's property.

Any damage to the room, its furnishings, sanitary facilities or other equipment must be reported within two days of moving in.

Residents are financially liable for any damage to their rooms and the equipment provided. This includes, in particular: damaged bed linen, damaged blankets, lost keys, damaged keys.

Reporting Maintenance Issues

Any faults involving the following must be reported at reception and recorded in the maintenance logbook: electrical installations, carpentry, plumbing.

Submitting a maintenance request constitutes consent for authorised staff to enter the room or residential unit, even in the resident's absence, until the issue has been resolved.

Residents are strictly prohibited from independently installing, modifying or repairing electrical, water, network, television or radio installations, altering door locks or duplicating keys.

UNIWERSYTET ŁÓDZKI

Parcels and Letters

All parcels and letters are received at the reception desk. Please note that the reception desk cannot accept cash-on-delivery (COD) parcels.

Once received, parcels and letters are handed over to the addressee only after they have signed the delivery register to confirm receipt.

For registered letters, the postal worker will leave a notification slip (delivery notice).

UNIWERSYTET ŁÓDZKI

Internet

Internet access in the dormitory is available via an Ethernet connection.
To connect, use an RJ-45 cable (commonly known as an Ethernet cable) to connect your device to the Ethernet socket provided in every room.

Connecting personal routers to the dormitory network is strictly prohibited.

Any issues with network access should be reported to the network administrators.

Contact details for the network administrators are available at reception.

UNIWERSYTET ŁÓDZKI

Gym and Games Room

A gym for residents is located in the basement of the dormitory.

The gym is open from 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. and must be booked in advance through the online Forms booking system.

Each resident may book the gym for a maximum of two hours per day.

The dormitory also offers a games room located in the basement.

Keys can be collected from reception.

The games room is equipped with: table tennis, table football.

Study Rooms and TV Room

Study rooms are available exclusively to the dormitory residents. They are located on the: ground floor, 1st floor, 2nd floor, 3rd floor.

Study rooms must be booked using the online Forms booking system.

Each resident may use a study room for a maximum of three hours per day.

A TV room is located on the ground floor of the dormitory, to the left of the main entrance.

The room can be booked through reception.

Residents are strictly prohibited from allowing non-residents to use the study rooms or the TV room without prior approval from the dormitory manager or reception staff.

UNIWERSYTET ŁÓDZKI

Additional Information

The dormitory has deckchairs available for residents that may be borrowed from reception.

If you do not have your own bed linen, you may use the pillowcases, duvet covers and sheets provided by the dormitory. If you wish to use this option, please inform reception when checking in at the beginning of the academic year.

Residents who own bicycles may store them in a designated area in the basement, provided they arrange this with reception in advance.

The dormitory has two portable ovens, which residents can borrow from reception.

Board games and sports equipment are also available for residents to borrow from reception.

Important links – QR codes

ROA – website

ROA – Instagram

Student Government Regulations

Dormitory XI Reservation System

UNIWERSYTET ŁÓDZKI